Public Hearing on Chemical Spill

What: A public hearing on the Aug. 14-16 Chemical Spill in the St. Clair River and on legislation that calls for increased communication regarding future spills.

When: Tuesday, September 30, 7-9 p.m.

Where: St. Clair City Hall, Council Room
547 N. Carney Drive, St. Clair, Michigan

Who: Sen. Jud Gilbert (R-Algonac) and the Senate Natural Resources and Environmental Affairs Committee. The hearing is open to the public.

Brief: Local residents will give testimony on the chemical spill that occurred during the August Blackout. Discussion will take place on Sen. Gilbert's resolution that urges the United States and Canada to develop greater communication and stronger safeguards for quicker notification of chemical spills in the Great Lakes.
